

MASTER OF ARTS IN GUIDANCE AND COUNSELING (MAGC)

The Master of Arts in Guidance and Counseling aims to enhance the career potentials of guidance counselors through intensive graduate studies that cater to the integral development of their competence in providing guidance and counseling services in schools and industries.

The Master of Arts in Guidance and Counseling program seeks to develop competent professionals committed to the service of God, country and the world. It aims:

- (1) to develop guidance counselors who are morally and spiritually upright, aware of their responsibilities as members of a Christian community;
- (2) to accelerate research as a response to global challenges and competitiveness, particularly in the field of counseling and guidance-provision; and,
- (3) to produce citizens who are capable of responding to the ever changing needs of the community as effective and efficient counselors, and as advocates of lifelong learning.
